

Lecture 06. A graph is a set of vertices connected by edges. Graphs may be directed or undirected.

Dijkstra's algorithm finds shortest paths in a weighted graph when every edge weight is non-negative.

Negative edge weights make Dijkstra incorrect. Bellman-Ford can handle negative weights but not neg